

MEN WHO SAY NO WANTED IN CHINA

YOUNG MEN GRADUATES COMING
TO THE UNITED STATES
FOR STUDY

(By Associated Press.)

PEKING, August 2.—Thirty-one young men were graduated this year from the Tsing Hua college, an institution maintained with the Boxer indemnity money refunded to China by the United States, and they will leave for America in a few weeks to enter various colleges and universities in that country.

Paul S. Reinsch, the American minister; Tsao Ju-fu, the acting minister for foreign affairs, and C. C. Wang, of the Board of Communications, who was educated in America, addressed the young graduates.

Mr. Reinsch drew a distinction between the old style of learning and the new style. He said the day is passing when a real scholar seeks distinction and wealth for himself. The man who has true learning now realizes his responsibility to serve others, and turn his knowledge to practical use for the betterment of his own country and all mankind. Mr. Reinsch said this is an age when action and real service to the general public are expected from educated men. He congratulated the graduates on finishing their preparatory course, and extended to them a hearty welcome to the education institutions of the United States.

C. C. Wang told the young graduates that China's great need today is that young graduates go to America with the firm determination to become men of decision and positive character, who will be able to assist
